FREE COINAGE BILL.

Such a Measure May Be Passed by Congress.

SILVER FORCES TO CONSOLIDATE

The Election Bill to Be Laid Aside for More Important Legislation—Proceedings of the House and Senate—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—It is expected that the action of the senate finance committee in substituting the provision for two hundred million two per cent. bonds to take the place of the fourth section of the caucus financial bill, which provides for the purchase of silver to replace bank notes retired, will consolidate the silver forces, and it is liable to result in the adoption of a free coinage bill. For the past two days the silver Republicans have been divided, some mistrusting and some having confidence in their eastern anti-silver associates.

Senator Stewart, speaking of the matter, says that the bill as amended is designed merely to rehabilitate the National banks and that the silver men had no interest in it. The purchase of the surplus silver held by a pool was not a matter that the advocates of free coinage were interested in.

All the Republican silver men are in an independent frame of mind, and the indications are that there will be a combination between them and the Democrats who agree with them. The matter again seems to be at a crisis. The conciliatory disposition on both sides is no longer apparent. The silver men have decided to effect a combination and expect to agree upon a free coinage bill, with which they will displace the election bill, next week.

The issue seems to have been made by the necessity for the leaders to yield or else to follow their own inclinations and let the fight come.

Letter From the President.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The president sent to the senate yesterday a letter recommending legislation relative to the criminal code for Oklahoma. The president says that the territorial legislature of Oklahoma now in session will adjourn by limitation of law to-day, the 24th inst. The act organizing the territory provided that certain chapters of the revised statutes of Nebraska should be in force until after the adjournment of the first session of the territorial legislature.

The question of the location of the territorial capital, he says, has so occupied the time of the legislature and so distracted and divided its members that no criminal code has been provided. It is urgently necessary, says the president, that congress should at once by joint resolution or otherwise continue the laws of Nebraska in force and save pending criminal arrests and prosecutions at least.

The reconvening of the legislature, he says in conclusion, does not, under existing circumstances, promise any relief.

House and Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The house yesterday after listening to the reading of the journal and approving it, and hearing the speaker's announcement of assignment of several members to committees, adjourned until Friday.

In the senate Mr. Morgan, during the morning hour, spoke in support of his resolution directing the committee on privileges and elections to amend the elections bill so as to show what changes and modifications in existing law are intended to be made. The elections bill was then taken up and Senators Call and McPherson spoke in opposition to the bill. Mr. Aldrich presented his closure resolution later in the afternoon, with the request that it lie on the table and be printed.

A Closure Rule Agreed On.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The senate committee on rules has come to an agreement on a closure rule, and it will probably be reported to the senate, although it may not be called for consideration until after the holidays, when a quorum of Republican senators is expected to be present.

JUSTICE BROWN.

Michigan Gets the Appointment to the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The president sent to the senate the following nominations: Henry B. Brown, of Michigan, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, vice Samuel F. Miller, deceased.

Col. Charles Sutherland, surgeon, to be surgeon general, with the rank of brigadier general, vice J. H. Baxter, deceased.

Major Lewis Merrill, U. S. A., retired, to be lieutenant colonel of cavalry, under authority of act of congress approved Sept. 27, 1890.

Judge Henry B. Brown was born at Lee, Mass., March 2, 1836. He graduated from Yale university in 1856, having for his classmates Chauncey M. Depew, Judge David J. Brewer, and others who have since obtained National reputation.

At the close of his college course he spent a year in Europe studying languages and traveling. On his return he began his law studies at Hartford, Conn., and received his degree from the Hartford law department. In 1859 he came to Detroit.

April, 1861, he was appointed deputy United States marshal and assistant district attorney. His connection with the latter office continued until 1868, when he was appointed judge of the Wayne county circuit court to fill a vacancy.

In March, 1875, he was appointed by President Grant judge for the eastern district of Michigan. Politically Judge Brown has always been a Republican.

WEAKENED BY FROSTS.

Many Workmen Injured by the Falling of Newly Built Walls.

AKRON, O., Dec. 24.—A terrific wind blew all day in this vicinity tearing down signs and chimneys. At Barberton, an Akron suburb, the Creedmoor cartridge works, now building, which had reached three stories in height, was blown down, burying many workmen in the ruin. Twelve carpenters were placing joists over the third story when a heavy gust of wind came. There was a crash, a swaying of walls, and building and all fell with a crash, the men dropping fifty feet.

John Triplett, a workman, was horribly crushed and killed outright. Theodore Homer, the contractor was so badly hurt that he cannot live, and Frank Malley was injured internally so that there is no hope of his recovery. The others injured are: I. S. Cower, Louis T. Canella, Joseph Gary and Hollowell. These, though suffering severe fractures, will probably die. The walls, it is said, were weakened by frost. The loss will be many thousand dollars.

A Youth Murdered.

FINDLAY, O., Dec. 24.—John Brennan, the 17-year-old son of Police Officer James Brennan, a telegraph operator for the Standard Oil company, was murdered yesterday at Bays, an oil station on the La-ton and Michigan railroad. The young man had $500 on his person, and late Monday night he was seen in company with two strangers around North Baltimore. The half-burned body of young Brennan was brought to Findlay. The men with whom he slept have been arrested and lodged in the Wood county jail. It is supposed young Brennan was murdered for his money and then the house set on fire to hide the crime.

It May Be a Big Combine.

DENVER, Dec. 24.—A meeting of the executive committee of the iron and steel manufacturing bureau was held last night at which Governor Evans, Senator Taylor, J. B. Porter, J. W. Nasmith and Secretary Durbin were present. As the conference was held with closed doors just what business was transacted cannot be learned, but it is stated on good authority that they organized a stock company, capital, $5,000,000 with $500,000 fully paid in, for the purpose of erecting a large plant to manufacture iron ore in this city.

Senator Ingalls' Prospects.

ATCHISON, Kan., Dec. 24.—Senator Ingalls, who arrived here yesterday from Washington, declines to talk freely about his chances for reelection. He says, however, he is confident he will be re-elected. He claims that he will have seventy-one votes, and the remaining twelve necessary to elect him will come when needed. Senator Ingalls will remain in home for the holidays, and probably will not return to Washington until after the legislature has decided whether he is to succeed himself in the senate.

Murdered by Mexicans.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 24.—F. M. Wilkins, a partner in the large cattle ranch of Wilkins Brothers & Company, together with a cowboy named C. S. Walton, were found Monday shot to death at the camp, fifty miles from Langley. Wilkins' body had been riddled with bullets and thrown into an old storehouse, while Walton had evidently been shot while eating breakfast. Two Mexicans are suspected of the murders and have fled across the Rio Grande, with the sheriff and posse in pursuit.

Lottery Fight Begun.

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 24.—The lottery fight opened yesterday before Judge George W. Buckner, with arguments for a writ of mandamus against Secretary of State Mason, to compel him to promulgate the act passed by the legislature at its last session, granting a lottery charter to John A. Morris and others for the term of twenty-five years, at an annual payment of $1,270,000. Whichever way the decision goes, it will be appealed to the supreme court which meets in February next.

Business Buildings Burned.

ALEXANDRIA, Mo., Dec. 24.—Fire last night destroyed a block of buildings in the central portion of this village. The fire originated in the warehouse of the St. Louis, St. Paul and Minneapolis Packet company, and at one time it was feared the whole town would be destroyed. The Keokuk fire department was summoned, but when they arrived the fire was under control. The loss is estimated at $25,000; insurance small.

Five Men Injured.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 24.—Ten workmen were unloading stone from a flat car yesterday on the Big Creek branch of the Indianapolis and Vincennes railroad, near Gosport. One very large stone remained and it overturned the car, the men falling down a forty foot embankment. Five were injured by being caught under the car. James Lease and Ling Hockman are badly crushed and may die.

Sold His Mine.

DENVER, Dec. 24.—Mr. George T. Batchelder has received a cablegram from the London parties who are negotiating for the Emmons mining property, that they leave with their expert for America on Saturday. As will be remembered the Emmons mine was sold last spring for $17,000,000, but delays in closing up the sale resulted on account of the panicky condition of the English money markets.

Rev. Doctor Blakely Dead.

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 24.—Rev. James Black, D.D., LL.D., aged 65 years, professor of Greek language and literature, and professor of English in the university of Wooster, died at 1 a. m. of a complication of diseases. Dr. Black is well known throughout American Presbyterianism as a scholar and educator. He was a classmate of James G. Blaine at Washington and Jefferson colleges.

SYRIANS AND ARABS

Interesting Colonization of Armenians.

MOSTLY ENGAGED IN TRADE.

Eighteen Thousand of Them in New York City—A New Damascus to Be Formed and a City to Be Founded—Looking for the Desired Location.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—It is estimated that there are now in this country about 18,000 Armenians. They are mostly engaged in trade. The headquarters are in New York city, and a few hundred men control the whole under a sort of patriarchal system of government which they all recognize with that traditional respect for authority which is peculiar to men of the east.

Some of the leaders have grown very rich by the importation of eastern goods which are sold by their peddlers throughout the country. Others have, with Yankee shrewdness, got into the manufacture of imitative eastern goods, which are peddled by real Arabs, whose personal appearance serves to give purchasers confidence in the genuineness of the articles sold.

There are among the capitalists some who bear to their dependents about the same relation that the padrones do to the Italians. The natives who come here very poor have money advanced to them for a wage, and when they get here they are supported for awhile and trusted with goods to sell until they are able to accumulate a little capital.

Numbers of the Syrians and Arabs have settled in New York city in the lower wards. They are frugal and industrious and look forward to the time when they may join the select class of leaders who employ the others. They settle their difficulties among themselves, and are averse to appealing to the courts. The decision of their accepted leader is considered binding and final.

Recently a project has been started among them to found a new Damascus here. A syndicate of Armenian capitalists has been formed with a view to the purchase of several thousand acres of land in some favorable locality near the coast, where the settlers may find a climate suitable for silk culture, fruit growing and farming, and where the Syrian immigrants may find congenial occupation.

The rich Armenians who have planned this scheme propose to supply all the necessary funds to bring the immigrants here to purchase the land and to stock it, and to found a city. Capital will be loaned to the immigrants until they are able to start on their own account and they will be encouraged to buy the land as soon as possible.

The location of the new Damascus has not yet been determined. The capitalists who started the scheme, and who prefer not to be known as yet by name, have authorized Townsend Scudder, a lawyer of this city, to look out for the desired track of land, which will probably lie in the south or southwest.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

A Man Thrown in Front of an Engine by a Runaway Team.

BUCKEYS, O., Dec. 24.—A horrible accident occurred at noon yesterday, at the Middletown street crossing of the Toledo and Ohio Central road, by which Fritz Russman, a farm laborer, aged about 65, lost his life. Russman was returning from delivering a load of hogs at the company's stock yards, and was driving quite a spirited team of horses.

When about to cross the track the team became frightened, turning suddenly square around, in doing this a wheel was torn off by a switch target and Russman was thrown out directly in front of a switch engine that was rapidly approaching. The engineer reversed immediately, but the speed was too great and the distance too short. Russman's head was cut off and he was otherwise horribly mangled. The unfortunate man was a quiet German, and has no relatives in this state.

Fight With a Madman.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 24.—Deputy Sheriff H. C. Baker and Steve Cox drove to John Welch's home in Green township to take charge of him and return him to the insane hospital at Indianapolis, from which he was recently released as cured. They had but alighted from the buggy when Welch began throwing stones at them, one striking Baker on the head and seriously injuring him. He finally got possession of their rig and led Cox a chase of a mile or two, when he abandoned the horse and buggy and escaped through the timber. Baker is greatly improved and will recover.

Young Farmer Murdered.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., Dec. 24.—News reaches here of a murder that was committed near Kellerville, this county. Conrad Keller, a young farmer, was found with his skull crushed with a gun-stock that was lying near him. Suspicion was at once directed against James Kane, who had a difficulty with young Keller some time during the day. Keller was a young man of good repute. Carr is under arrest.

Lost Her Home and Took Her Life.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 24.—Mrs. Johann O'Daily, aged 80 years, was found dead in bed by the sheriff, who had gone to the house to evict her as the result of the foreclosure of a mortgage. The loss of her home deranged her mind, and she ended her life with a dose of arsenic.

Walbridge, O., On Fire.

TOLEDO, O., Dec. 24.—A disastrous fire is raging in Walbridge, a station on the Pennsylvania road, six miles south of Toledo. A stove mill and six dwelling houses are in flames.

THE COLORED MESSIAH CRAZE.

What Was at First a Joke in Kansas City Takes a More Serious Turn.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 24.—What was at first a source of amusement to Chief of Police Speers has become a matter of serious consideration. Early last week a number of colored men called upon the chief to ask permission to hold "ghost dances," saying that they had a Messiah that would lead them to a promised land. The chief granted their request and considered the matter a huge joke.

The craze has, however, assumed the proportion of something more than a joke and is rapidly spreading among the more ignorant classes of colored people throughout the city. Some ten or fifteen days ago a tall, gaunt black man made his appearance in what is known as "Hell's Half Acre," in the packing-house district, and announced himself as the Messiah sent to save the colored race. This was Reuben Carter. He came here from Pomeroy, Kan., where he has long been known as "Cranky Rebe." He went among the negroes and gradually drew converts to his ideas, and at last accumulated quite a following among the negroes in the west bottoms.

Carter preaches the destruction of the whole white race, and says the calamity is to occur next spring. He warns the blacks to follow him if they would escape the general destruction. He tells them that all who follow the whites will suffer their fate, but those who go with him will be taken to the "Promised Land" and placed in power, and the wealth of the world will be theirs. His story is a sort of revised edition of the Indian craze, and he has evidently been reading of what is going on among the red race.

He claims that "the Promised Land" is in Oklahoma, and says he will lead all the believers there in the spring and they will then see that he possesses miraculous power. He promises that cities will rise in a night for those who will follow him, and that these cities will be built by the angels of God, who will be sent to serve him. He enters into a minute description and it tallies exactly with the city which the Book of Revelations tells of. He says the city will be called the New Jerusalem and will be built of gold and precious stones.

The permission granted by the chief of police has been fully taken advantage of, and the colored people in the district mentioned have been holding nightly revels, which they call religious dances, but which are now beginning to assume the appearance of idolatrous orgies. As the dancing continues the negroes appear to go back to their ancient savagery, and their movements now resemble the incantations of the voodoo dancers of the south. Men and women join in the craze, and the dance becomes wilder and wilder every night, until the chief is seriously considering the revoking of the permits thus stopping the dances.

Carter has disappeared, and his followers say that he is in retirement until New Year's Day, when, they say, he will appear in all his glory and show his wonderful power by signs and miracles. The dancing, which has heretofore been public to anyone who desired to witness it, is now done in secret, and admission is refused to all who do not believe in the new Messiah. There is no doubt that the man has gained great control over the people of his race, and unless some measures are taken there will be trouble with the converts.

A LIVELY BOARDING-HOUSE.

Seven Mysterious Fires Extinguished in One Day.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 24.—There is a superstitious reign of terror in the neighborhood of Jane McGowen's boarding-house on Southern avenue, where most mysterious outbreaks of fire continue. Seven fires were extinguished in the house Monday. The police force and fire department have failed to solve the mystery, and now J. D. Lisle, an eminent analytic chemist, has been engaged by insurance companies to analyze clothing, etc., which has caught fire.

Several beds in the house caught fire from no cause which could be ascertained. A trunk of clothing to a deceased daughter of Mrs. McGowen's, and which has not been unpacked since her death, caught fire this morning. This is claimed by superstitious people as evidence of supernatural agency. The boarders have moved their trunks out of the house. It is supposed that some fire fiend has saturated everything in the house with combustible chemicals.

A FEAT IN FASTING.

A Woman of Seventy Who Has Lived on Milk and Tea for Four Months.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Dec. 24.—Martin's Ferry has an Irish woman who has accomplished something that Signor Succini cannot do. Her name is Mrs. Timothy Callahan, 70 years old, and she has lived on milk and tea for four months or 120 days. Her son Dennis says that for seven years before he was married he never saw his mother eat a single bite of bread, and she would not eat over two pieces in two weeks.

This is not on account of poverty, but stomach troubles. Mrs. Callahan has reared several children, all healthy, has not a gray hair in her head, and, strange to say, she is active, able to do housework every day and can walk farther than any member of the family. Her husband is an ironworker, and they reside on Bessemer street, in the Third ward.

Hamilton Fish Recovering.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Mr. Hamilton Fish, secretary of state in President Grant's cabinet, who was reported seriously ill, is recovering. The physician says the report that Mr. Fish was critically ill was erroneous. He was troubled with nothing more than a severe cold.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1890

EVEN the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette is opposed to the Force bill.

THE wheel makers of the country have formed a combine, and wheels that sold a month ago at $3.50 now cost $9. "Bust" the wheel trust.

THE Portsmouth Blade remarks that "it is a serious matter to marry a Blue Grass belle." What does the editor of the Blade know about it? He has never married a Blue Grass belle, and we doubt whether he could find one to accept him.

LONG, the reputed author of the Force bill now pending in Congress, said he wanted to see "a file of Federal soldiers at every voting place." It is not likely that his wish will be gratified any ways soon. The people do not like this thing of depositing their ballots at the point of a bayonet.

GENERAL ASA BUSHNELL is said to be the favorite of the Forakerites for Governor of Ohio, but they are afraid to run him because he is connected with that big reaper and mower trust. The Republicans seem to be aware of the fact that the people are not particularly struck on trusts and combines.

A "boom" agent told the Lexington Transcript Monday that $2,000,000 from the Bluegrass Region were sunk in the boom towns of the South during the past twelve months. If this $2,000,000 had only been invested at home in manufacturing what a boom Central Kentucky would now be enjoying.

A COMBINATION of Eastern and Western agricultural papers sent out to farmers in all sections of the country a list of questions on political issues of the day, among the questions being one asking who should be the Republican and Democratic nominees for President in 1892. Nearly 110,000 answers were received. The vote for Democratic candidates was as follows: Cleveland, 71,787; Hill, 17,118; Hatch, 11,082; scattering 8,803. The Republican vote was: Blaine, 39,209; Harrison, 31,013; Rusk, 20,746; scattering, 16,903.

What do the Hill "boomers" think of it? The returns show that Cleveland is a big favorite in every section of the country.

WILLIAM E. CHANDLER, Republican United States Senator from New Hampshire, notorious as a political shyster and rascal, has some political associates near him who do not entertain a higher opinion of him than that cherished by Democrats generally. The Manchester Press, which is a Republican paper, describes him as a "creature beside whom Benedict Arnold was a self sacrificing patriot." It also expresses the opinion that "from the day of his birth to the present he has never drawn an honest breath," and that he is a man "whose only reputation is that of a wily trickster." These are hard words to be applied by one Republican to another. And Chandler, by the way, is the fellow who is engineering the scheme to steal the Governorship of New Hampshire and beat the Democrats out of a U. S. Senator. But his scheme may be blocked.

Hon. Samuel Phelps Leland.

The first lecture in our lyceum course will be given on Tuesday evening, 30th inst., by the Hon. Samuel Phelps Leland. Subject: "The Land of Burns and Scott." Mr. Leland lectured at Leidenkrantz Hall, Louisville, on Monday evening last, to a large and appreciative audience. The Courier-Journal says "From the notices given by the press of the lecturer and his lecture, the expectations of the people were wrought to the highest pitch, and it was thought by some that disappointment would certainly follow, but happily, for the reputation of the lecturer, his audience was more than pleased, and the only regrets were that he closed so soon."

We are glad to hear that the ladies are meeting with success in their sale of season tickets. Holders can now reserve seats for the first entertainment by presenting tickets at Harry Taylor's. Season tickets have been placed on sale at J. J. Wood's, Major Chenoweth's and W. L. Thomas & Brother's. Remember the price, $3 for a single season ticket, or $2.50 where two or more are purchased. Parties desiring to purchase tickets for single entertainments only can secure them at Harry Taylor's.

I am prepared to arrange nice baskets of fruit for Christmas presents.

Miss Judith R. Carpenter, of Millersburg, is visiting relatives near Tuckahoe.

Miss Mamie Hendrixson, of Forest avenue, is visiting friends at Covington.

Mr. J. Fletcher Grimes will arrive this evening from Cincinnati to spend Christmas.

Mr. J. C. Morrison, of Crown Hill, W. Va., is in town spending a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Patton, of Middleborough, are guests of Mrs. Julia G. Morgan.

Mr. Ed. Perrie has returned from Anchorage to spend a few days with his parents.

Mrs. W. L. Menaugh, of Washington, D. C., is seriously ill, and is not expected to recover.

Mrs. Mary Supplee has returned from a visit to Mr. Horrock's family of Allegheny City.

Mr. E. M. Hendrixson, of Kansas City, arrived yesterday to take Christmas at his old home.

Misses Rosa and Abbie Pickett are home from school to spend Christmas with their father, Dr. Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Maltby are here to spend Christmas with Mrs. Emma Maltby, of West Third street.

Mr. Harry Heath, of Springfield, Ohio, will spend Christmas with Mrs. S. J. Daugherty and family.

Miss Annie Y. Tolle, of Johnson Junction, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. M. B. Tolle, of the Fifth ward.

Mr. Dimmitt Hutchins arrived home this morning from Ohio Wesleyan University for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. W. A. Byrne, of Clifton, Cincinnati, is in town to spend Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Bettie Byrne, of West Second street.

Mr. Henry McClanahan, engineer of the Cincinnati and Louisville packet, City of Madison, arrived last evening to spend Christmas.

Miss Maude E. Kirk, of Washington, who has been attending the Millersburg Female College, has returned home to spend the holiday vacation.

A Fool's Attempt.

A Covington loafer offered to drink fifteen whiskies in twenty minutes the other evening, and started in to win his wager. The Commonwealth says: "When the fool had swallowed the seventh drink, the poison choked him and his throat closed. He fell to the floor struggling for breath and strangling. The crowd was no longer amused, as the man was gasping for breath, with his hand on his wind pipe, and it was evident that he would die if not soon relieved. Suddenly a flow of whisky, mingled with blood, flew from his mouth in a great stream, and for some time, the hemorrhage continued, flooding the floor.

"One of the men had been dispatched to find a doctor, when, as the flow of blood had almost ceased and he lay panting on the floor, Dr. Averdick entered, and medicine was administered that relieved the patient sufficient to have him removed to his home.

"The man is very low and may possibly die of congestion of the bowels and brain fever."

Another Secret Marriage.

Public announcement of the secret marriage of a young society couple of Paris has just been made. The contracting parties are Mr. Wallace Steele, a young telegraph operator, and Miss Clara Woodford, daughter of W. T. Woodford, deceased, who was one of Bourbon's most prominent and wealthy farmers. The marriage took place in Aberdeen, June 5 last, and was kept a profound secret until Monday morning, only two or three friends knowing it. The groom has for the past four or five months been holding the position of telegraph operator at Huntington, W. Va., and the bride has been living with her mother. Now that the secret is out and the groom has given up his position as operator the couple will go to housekeeping in a few days on the farm belonging to the bride.

Diamonds Outdone.

According to Dr. Loomis, the eminent New York physician who has returned from Berlin, the lymph of Dr. Koch is probably the most valuable thing in the world. Every drop of fluid is worth $1,300, and a phial containing sixty drops would have an actual commercial value of $78,000. This calculation is based on the assumption that a drop of the lymph, when diluted, will furnish one hundred injections, and every injection will be worth $10 to the physician making it. A drop of the fluid is worth three times as much as a fine diamond the same size.

Holiday Special.

Mixed candies, 10 to 25c. per pound; mixed nuts, (no peanuts) 15c.; new raisins, 10 and 15c.; figs, 8c. and 15c.; fine Florida oranges, 25 to 40c. per dozen, and everything else pertaining to a bountiful Christmas at lowest prices, at John Wheeler's, Market street. 18d4t

River News.

Over 4,000,000 bushels of coal are en route from Pittsburgh.

The Little Kanawha is out of its banks, and there is a big rise also in the Big Kanawha.

Due up: Bonanza for Pomeroy and Stanley for Charleston after midnight. Down: Sherley and Keystone State this evening and Bostona to night.

The sunken steamer Ohio is lying just below Cottonwood Point, fifty yards from the bank with her head up stream and straight. She lies in eight feet of water, with the wrecking-boat Hill alongside. This is her third sink—once in Kentucky river, once on the falls at Louisville, and now at Cottonwood.

Churches and Preachers.

Since April 1st, the American Bible House has issued 676,955 volumes.

A Noteworthy Exception.

From the Kimball (S. D.) Graphic: "While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally and a noteworthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic for four or five years but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has on several occasions this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other medicines; and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity, in which this remedy has been used with like effects, attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature." For sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists. 16d12t

A RECENT ruling of the Secretary of the Treasury was worth nearly $1,000,000 to the Kentucky Distilling Company of Louisville. The decision was that the company would not have to pay the tax on the whisky which was burned a few months ago.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

ORANGEBURG.

Born, to the wife of Robert Bullock, a fine daughter.

One of Black Lou Bullock's fine dogs got its leg broke last Saturday.

J. Lou Bullock and his brother, D. E. Bullock, killed thirty birds last Saturday.

Mrs. Rebecca Clary, of Mayslick, is spending a few days with her brother, J. H. Anno.

Elder Wm. Morrison preached his farewell sermon Sunday. He will not be the pastor here the next year.

MAYSICK.

Mr. Isaac Manly, who has been quite poorly for some time, is no better and his recovery is doubtful.

Anthony Laytham, Mrs. Julia Longnecker and some others are confined to their homes with la grippe.

Mrs. Rebecca Clary, one of our popular widows, left last Thursday to visit her relatives at Oranburg.

E. P. Clarke, of Nicholas County, is visiting his father, W. P. Clarke, who has been quite poorly for some time.

Mr. J. P. McCormack and sister, Teresa, of Georgetown, and Miss Julia Goodman, of Millersburg, are the pleasant guests of Miss Minnie Hanley, near this place.

J. A. Jackson is opening and making a grand display of holiday goods direct from Chicago and New York and at prices that would astonish you. Just call and see his toys before you purchase and save some money by buying from his large and well-selected stock.

If ink is spilled on the carpet, throw a quantity of salt on it, which will quickly absorb the ink; take this up, and put on more salt. Keep repeating this, rubbing it well into the ink spot until the ink is all taken up by the salt; then brush the salt out of the carpet.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

LAUS A DEO.

BY REV. THOMAS HANFORD, D. D.

Unconscious Nature has a tongue
The Lord our God to praise;
And seemingly it all day long
Sings well its heaven-born lays.
The zephyrs off, ten thousand strings
To harmony awake;
The sweetest music nature brings,
Upon their harps they make.
The win is lift up their voice with strength,
And tell of power divine;
From breeze to gale, and then at length
In tempests are sublime.
The rolling waves along the shore,
That dash on rock and wall,
Proclaim their Maker evermore,
And on him seem to call.
The stars that shine in yonder sky—
Those beauteous orbs of light—
With one another seem to vie
In singing God's great might.
From worlds above and world's around,
We hear some anthem pour;
From heaven it echoes to the ground,
And thence from shore to shore.
And further yet the music swells
And further yet does rise;
Angelic songs that heaven thrills
Float downward from the skies.
Cherubic hosts, on harps of gold
And seraphs shining bright,
Sing the Creator as of old,
When day succeeded night.
But we who hear the songs divine;
Who drink the music down,
Or all, shall we alone repine,
And discontented frown?
Though into being last delayed,
Within ourselves we find
Wisdom and power both displayed
In body and in mind.
We stand erect, we look above;
In thought we soar on high;
We feel in God we live and move,
And long to reach the sky.
Then let us praise in cheerful song
Our great Creator's name;
To him of right does praise belong,
From whom our being came.
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
One God, in Persons Three;
From all the sacramental host
Let praises ever be.

THE Portsmouth Blade, referring to the sudden death of Miss Anna M. Atkinson, says: "The many Portsmouth people who met this estimable young lady at Esculapia Springs will be pained to hear of her death. The writer has a pleasant impression of her charming presence, during a brief acquaintance."

THE Adams Express Company's business at this point yesterday beat the record.

THE Court of Appeals has decided that the law creating the State Board of Equalization is constitutional, and that there is no appeal from the action of the local or State boards.

DON'T buy Christmas presents until you see Ballenger's elegant stock of jewelry, clocks and silk umbrellas. He has some lovely novelties that are as suitable as anything you can find for a Christmas gift.

THE Epworth League of the M. E. Church will give a literary entertainment in the main room of the church to-night, and at the close, Kris Krinkle will appear and distribute Christmas presents among the members and the pupils of the Sunday school.

MISS MATTIE D. TODD, who was recently re-appointed postmistress at Cynthiana, has held the office ever since the commencement of Hayes' administration. She is a cousin of Robert Lincoln, and a relative of Congressman Breckinridge, and stands in with both parties.

A PATENT was issued in Washington recently for a steel fence post. It is to be made of steel tubing, seven feet high, with a neat cap and with bands to hold the barbed wire. It is said that these posts can be furnished complete for placing in the ground at 24 cents each.

THE Frank Owens Hardware Company state that in order to close out as many goods as possible by January 1st they have reduced the price in all their fine Christmas goods, such as brass fire sets, clock vases, fine carvers and forks, child's knives, forks and spoons, fine table cutlery, &c., &c.

LADIES, think of it. McKrell's eighty-five Newmarkets that cost from $8 to $15, and he is selling them at only $5; fifty jackets that cost from $2.75 to $7.50, which will be sold at $3.50. Don't miss this opportunity to secure a bargain. His stock of dry goods is complete in all departments. Call on him.

SHERIFF ALEXANDER executed his official bond yesterday and also his bond for the collection of the State and county revenue. The sureties are J. M. Alexander, Jas. B. Key, Judge Emery Whitaker, R. B. Case, W. H. Roe, J. E. Cahill, Wesley Vicroy, J. D. Maybush, John Zech, Sr., Mrs. Mary F. Cox, Mrs. Ann Alexander, A. K. Marshall, D. S. White, J. L. Browning, Thomas Luttrell and John O'Donnell.

FOSTER, the weather prophet, is "hitting the nail on the head" right along now in his predictions. He foretold the heavy storm that crossed the Ohio Valley last week, and cold wave this week. He says: "I expect colder weather during the first two weeks in January, but the month will not be as severe one. I believe there will be an increase in rainfall in 1891 in the Mississippi and Missouri valleys along the 4th degree of North latitude. May, 1892, will bring the most disastrous storms since 1832-3."

THE Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat, of December 4th and 11th, arrived yesterday fresh from the press. The editor apologizes to his subscribers in the following words: "Our patrons will please pardon us for being late with this issue, as we have been busy the past two or three weeks having some needed repairs made on our residence, besides having a cellar dug, and a solid stone foundation placed under same. We will soon have arrangements completed by which there will be no further irregularity in our office work."

MINER'S MAXIMS

When You Have Found a

GOOD Article Use and Recommend It.

Discoverers are the pioneers of progress.

Columbus discovered America, and the world has received the benefit of his efforts. Early in the century Miner discovered the qualities which combine to form a good shoe, and ever since the public have used and recommended HIS Shoes.

Worth determines value; and constant use is a test of merit. Miner's Shoes have stood the test of years, and their real worth is seen in the value they afford the user.

Use determines cost; and the purchasing value of a dollar depends upon the actual amount of wear which an article will sustain in relation to its cost.

The wearing qualities of Miner's Shoes make them cost less than those which may be cheaper in price, but dearer in wear.

PARNELL DEFEATED.

Result of the Elections in Ireland.

HENNESSY SURELY ELECTED.

His Majority Will Be Nearly Twelve Hundred—A Big Strike in Glasgow. Various Other Foreign News.

KILKENNY, Dec. 24.—The official result of the election Monday to fill the vacancy in the house of commons shows that Hennessy, the nominee of the anti-Parnellites, is elected. The result of the election was as follows: Hennessy, 2,502; Scully, 1,356; majority for Hennessy, 1,146.

In view of the almost vital importance to both sides of the exciting political contest just decided, it is claimed that both parties deserve great credit for the fact that no collision took place between their followers and that the last days of the campaign at least were conspicuous for the almost entire absence of the personal abuse which has recently been exchanged by broadsides between the followers and the opponents of Mr. Parnell.

Parnell Must Be Stopped. DUBLIN, Dec. 24.—At a meeting of the National committee yesterday, the chairman, Mr. W. M. Murphy, of St. Patrick's, said that Mr. Parnell had disregarded Ireland's voice, and must be stopped in his mad career. The committee will start a new daily newspaper with Mr. O'Brien as editor.

The Pope Congratulated. ROME, Dec. 24.—The pope yesterday received the congratulations of the cardinals upon the fifty-third anniversary of his first mass. His holiness looked well. In his address to the visitors he deplored the war of sects against the church and reaffirmed the rights of the papacy.

True, But Not Alarming. BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 24.—The rumor to the effect that a plot to overthrow the government existed, and that several persons had been arrested for complicity in the conspiracy, has been confirmed. The plot, however, is not an important one, and the public is not excited.

Labor Troubles. LONDON, Dec. 24.—Twelve hundred railway workmen at Hull will strike tomorrow for increased wages and shorter hours. The cotton masters of Lancashire have granted a 5 per cent. increase in the wages of their employees.

Died in Prison. LONDON, Dec. 24.—McCabe, who was convicted in 1883 of blowing up the Glasgow gas works with dynamite, has just died in prison at Perth. He has been insane for the past two years. His friends allege that he was driven crazy by cruel treatment.

The Queen Does Not Object. PARIS, Dec. 24.—The Dix-Neuvieme Siecle states that Queen Victoria has assured the pope, through Cardinal Manning, that there will be no objection from England to the canonization of the French National heroine, Joan of Arc.

Duel Averted. PARIS, Dec. 24.—The threatened duel between MM. Brousse and Dumay has been averted, M. Brousse having tendered an apology to M. Dumay for the blow which he struck him during an altercation yesterday.

Collision of Ships. LONDON, Dec. 24.—The Hamburg ship Libussa collided with the British ship Talooklar, from Calcutta for London. The captain and twenty-two of the crew and ten passengers of the Talooklar were lost.

Trains Run Together. LONDON, Dec. 24.—A railway collision occurred near Winalorne on the South-western railway yesterday, by which one woman was killed and several persons injured.

THE KILKENNY ELECTION. The New York Envoys Issue a Manifesto to the People.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Messrs. John Dillon and Thomas P. O'Connor, the two remaining Irish envoys on this side of the Atlantic, issued the following statement last night in reference to the Kilkenny election: "We learned the result of the Kilkenny election with great pleasure. The majority is greater than we hoped for. It is a vindication of the patriotism and sagacity of the constituency, because it shows that consideration of the good of the country and the safety of the cause have prevailed with the electors over natural feelings of gratitude and affection for a great leader like Mr. Parnell, which have blinded so many to the true issue at stake.

"The result in Kilkenny in our judgment offers a chance of reuniting our party, and we earnestly hope that both sides will now co-operate with Mr. O'Brien in bringing about a reunion of the Irish National party."

Three Persons Injured. DETROIT, Dec. 24.—During the prevalence of a severe gale shortly after noon yesterday, the eastern market building on Russell street, just south of the house of correction, blew down, severely injuring three persons, slightly injuring several others, killing three horses and injuring four more. The building was simply an enormous roof, supported by iron pillars, with a ground plan in the form of a cross extending in each direction from street to street through the center of the square. The injured are: Mrs. J. C. Baumgartner, left arm broken, right shoulder dislocated and severe flesh wounds; her son David received severe scalp wounds and internal injuries, which may result fatally; Adolphus Daron, cut about head.

Killed by a Falling Tree. SALAMANCA, N. Y., Dec. 24.—Frank Lamb, of West Salamanca, was killed while working in the woods near Little Valley, yesterday morning, by a tree that he was chopping falling on him.

WONDERFUL CURES OF LUPUS.

Abstract of Dr. Lindsey's Paper Before the Medical Society of New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—At the regular meeting of the medical society of the county of New York Monday night, Dr. John Lindsey read a paper treating of Professor Koch's lymph, in which occurred the following:

"I made a visit to Berlin under the auspices of the New York hospital for the purpose of watching and testing the curative power of Dr. Koch's lymph, and also to procure some of the aid for use in the hospital. On my arrival in Berlin I went to the renowned professor's clinic, which was then in charge of Professor Gerhardt, in the absence of Dr. Koch. Professor Gerhardt was and is still engaged in experimenting. Every patient has to undergo a rigid medical examination before he is treated at all. Then if this is satisfactory there is 1-65 of agram of lymph injected into him. The rise in temperature is the first symptom, and it reaches from 100 to 105 degrees.

"The injections are made in the morning, that the symptoms may be watched by daylight. Patients are examined every two hours and almost incessantly watched. Up to the time of my leaving Berlin Professor Gerhardt had not discharged a case as cured of pulmonary phthisis. The American doctors in Berlin are astounded at the wonderful cures of lupus. Cases of ten years' standing show a decided change for the better the day following inoculation."

Dr. Frederick Warner, who arrived from Berlin Monday, was present at the meeting. He said Dr. Liebertz had shown great discourtesy to Americans, and he had yet to see one who had been treated even politely by him. Dr. Warner was assured that inside of two weeks there would be enough lymph sent here for the use of all the largest hospitals.

Important Pension Decision.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Assistant Secretary Bussey has rendered a decision holding that the names of George J. Bond and James Edgar Engle, who were dropped from the pension rolls, because they were indebted to the United States on account of improper payment of arrearages in June, 1889, was an error. The pensioners were employees in the pension office and their pensions were rerated with back pay to $45 per month by Commissioner Tanner under his interpretation of the law that for amputation of an arm at the shoulder joint a pensioner was entitled to the same rate as if the amputation was at the hip joint.

In March, 1890, Commissioner Tanner's ruling was revoked leaving the pensioners in debt to the government. Assistant Secretary Bussey, in a letter to Commissioner Kaum, holds that the action of his bureau in suspending the names from the pension rolls was an error, and directs that they be immediately re-tored to the rolls, receiving their pensions from the date of the revocation of the order. He says "they are to be treated as though there has not been, nor is there due from them, any sum for reimbursement of the government on account of over payment of pension money." This proceeding, however delayed, is essential at once to the correction of a departmental error, and to the cause of justice to the pensioners concerned."

END OF THE INDIAN TROUBLE.

A Number of Sitting Bull Fugitives Come Into the Reservation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Maj. Gen. Schofield has received the following telegram from Gen. Ruger, dated St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 22.

"Big Foot with his following, including some of the Sitting Bull fugitives and those disaffected Indians from Cherry creek district and the Cheyenne river reservation, who joined Big Foot with them, surrendered yesterday to Col. Sumner. The rest of Sitting Bull's people who came to Cherry creek, with the exception of a few who may have sought shelter at Pine Ridge, are on their way under conduct to Fort Bennett for surrender."

"The Big Foot people will be sent to Fort Meade; those surrendering at Bennett probably to Sully. The surrender and disarmament of these two factions practically ends the probability of any serious trouble with the Indians of Cheyenne river and Standing Rock reservations, and is a good step toward ending the whole trouble."

Almost Escaped.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 24.—Patrick Mitchell, serving a two years' sentence from Mahoning county for pocket picking, made his escape from the penitentiary about noon yesterday. He secured a ladder and placed it against the wall near the female department. He passed within fifty feet of where Guard McDevitt was eating his dinner. After reaching the ground he walked toward the stables, breaking sticks as he went as if that was part of his daily occupation. When near the stable he encountered Jack McCabe, who is serving an eighteen years' sentence from Franklin county for shooting a newspaper correspondent, and was brought back.

Scaffolding Gives Way.

SALAMANCA, N. Y., Dec. 24.—While workmen were raising up a heavy iron truss at the round house here yesterday it overbalanced and fell, carrying the scaffolding with it. Four men were badly hurt. Albert Lent, of Salamanca, had his right leg crushed above the knee, causing the bone to protrude through the flesh; George Light, also of this place, was hurt about the back and hips; James Welch, of Buffalo, was cut and bruised seriously; and Thomas Clancy, of Buffalo, is internally injured. Lent will have his leg amputated at the hip, and his injuries are so severe that he is not expected to recover.

Barred Under a Falling Wall.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—While some men were tearing down a wall of one of Armour's old packing houses, at Forty-third street and Packers' avenue, yesterday, the wall collapsed and fell, burying several men in the ruins. Michael Barry and an unknown man were instantly killed, and William Devine and John McInerney were fatally injured. A number of other men were more or less seriously hurt.
